

2.03 Code of Conduct – Providing a Safe and Caring School

2. School Administration - Administrative Procedure Manual

Schools will incorporate a continuum of supports including positive and preventative approaches and strategies, as well as consequences corresponding to the nature, severity, and frequency of the behavior or infraction. The consequences are to be considered in conjunction with the age, grade level, exceptional learning needs, and other factors affecting the individuals to whom this process is applied.

The Division's focus will be on preventative, proactive measures to teach respectful and responsible behavior. It is recognized that, on occasion, it will be necessary to address disrespectful and irresponsible behavior through disciplinary policy and procedures. Consequences for disrespectful and irresponsible behaviors will be based on individual needs, the degree of the problem and the need to maintain a respectful learning environment. Procedures regarding student discipline will be communicated to school division staff, parents, and students at the beginning of each school year or upon the registration or enrolment of new students during the year.

Administration Rights and Responsibilities

Foundational to a safe and caring learning community are the rights of all members to:

- a) be safe
- b) be accepted and treated with dignity and respect
- c) learn and teach without interference

Membership in a community comes with responsibilities.

It is expected that all learning community members (students, staff members, parents and other adults on site) will accept responsibility for their behavior to foster a safe, caring and productive learning community.

It is the responsibility of all individuals to ensure that their behavior, individually and collectively, does not infringe upon the rights of others. Consideration for the safety of others is the responsibility of each member of the learning community.

It is expected that all learning community members will exhibit behavior that shows respect for the rights, property and safety of themselves and others.

The above principles are supported by the Education Administration Act under several sections including the Preamble and those sections of the Act pertaining to the duties of students, parents, teachers, superintendents and support staff.

The Code of Conduct applies to participation at school, at school activities, school sponsored activities and School Division activities and sponsored activities. It also applies to community behavior that impacts the learning community.

Individuals or groups violating these principles become subject to a range of appropriate responses as defined by the Pine Creek School Division's Code of Conduct.

Information to assist in the evaluation of the threat can come from teachers, staff, other students, parents and other sources such as Police or mental health specialists. Based on the results of the evaluation, an intervention plan will be developed.

In addressing misbehavior, Pine Creek School Division expects that responses shall:

- be logical, realistic, and timely
- be appropriate for the student's stage of development and considerate of the student's special needs
- reflect the severity of misbehavior and take into account the frequency, duration, and intent of the misbehavior
- be chosen primarily to restore safety and order
- make sense to the student as much as possible
- enable students to generate appropriate responses and solutions

Student Suspension/Expulsions

Schools will keep records on the nature and duration of all suspensions, both in-school and out-of-school. Schools will offer and arrange alternative programming for students who are expelled suspended for more than five days. In some cases, the school may arrange for an alternative site when it has been determined that the school site is not the most appropriate placement when programming for student success.

A written plan will be developed for students who are suspended out of school more than two times during a school year.

Teachers- have the right to suspend a student from the classroom (in school suspension only) for a period not exceeding 2 days for conduct the teacher considers to be detrimental to the classroom learning environment, and for behaviour that contravenes the school's code of conduct. The school board may limit a teacher's right to suspend.

2. A letter which outlines the reason for the suspension is to follow within 24 hours.
